An Additional Act against the Importation of Foreign Cattle.

15 Car. 2. cap. 7.
18 Car. 2. cap. 2.
30 Car. 2. cap. 2.

Whereas by an Act of this present Parliament, Intituled, An Act against Importing of Cattle from Ireland, and other Parts beyond the Seas, and Fish taken by Foreigners, amongst other things, Provision was made against Importation of Cattle from Parts beyond the Seas: And it was thereby Enacted, That such Importation from and after the Second Day of February, which was in the Year One thousand six hundred sixty six, was a publick Nusance, and should be so adjudged, deemed and taken to all Intents and Purposes; and that if any great Cattle, Sheep or Swine, or any Beef, Pork or Bacon, (except for the necessary Provision of the respective Ships or Vessels in which the same should be brought, not exposing the same to Sale) should from and after the said Second Day of February, by any wise whatsoever, be Imported or brought from beyond the Seas into this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, That then it should and might be lawful for any Constable, Tything-man, Headborough, Church-warden, or Overseers of the Poor, or any of them, within their respective Liberties, Parishes or Places, to take and seize the same, and keep the same during the space of Eight and forty Hours, in some publick or convenient Place where such Seizure should be made; within which time, if the Owner or Owners, or any for them or him, should make it appear unto some Justice of the Peace of the same County where the same should so be Seized, by the Oath of Two credible Witnesses, that the same were not Imported from Ireland, or from any other Place beyond the Seas not therein after excepted, after the said Second Day of February, then the same, upon the Warrant of such Justice of Peace, should be delivered without Delay; but in default of such Proof and Warrant, then the same to be forfeited; one half thereof to be disposed to the Use of the Poor of the Parish where the same shall be so found or seized, the other to be to his or their own Use that should so seize the same. Rates, to the said Owners or their Agents: And other of the said Officers, who have discharged their Duties in the due Execution of the said Act, have been molested therefore, and several Actions, Suits, Plaints and Informations, have been brought and prosecuted against some of them in Countries and Places far distant from their Habitations, to their great Charge and Discouragement. For the Vindication therefore of the Authority of Parliament from such bold Affronts, and the Indemnifying as well of such Officers, who have faithfully endeavoured the Execution of the said Act (although they have not strictly pursued the same in every Circumstance) as of such other Person and Persons who have acted in their Aid and Assistance, and for the better and further Suppression of the said Nusance; Be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That all and every Constable, Tythingman, Headborough, Church-warden, and Overseer of the Poor, and every other Person or Persons who have acted in or concerning the Seizure, Keeping, Detaining or Disposing of any Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Beef, Pork or Bacon, Imported contrary to the said Act, after the said Second Day of February, shall be, and are hereby saved harmless, and indemnified in that behalf, against the Owner or Owners thereof, at the time of such Importation, their Executors and Administrators, and every other Person and Persons claiming from, by, or under their Gift, Grant, or other Disposition; and against all and every Person and Persons, to whom any fraudulent Sale hath been made after such Importation, as aforesaid, and their and every of their Executors and Administrators.

Several Clauſes in an Act, Intituled, An Act for the further Encouragement of the Manufacture of Luſtrings and Alamodes within this Realm, and for the better Preventing the Importation of the ſame.

Reaſons to prevent the Exportation of Money.

Whereas it hath been always found of great advantage to encourage the ſetting up and making of new Manufactures within this Realm, whereby the Exportation of Money to procure Foreign Commodities is prevented, the Wealth of the Kingdom encreaſed, and the Poor are imployed: And whereas there are great quantities of Alamodes and Luſtrings conſumed by his Majeſties Subjects, which till of late Years were imported from Foreign parts, and thereby the Treaſure of this Nation much exhauſted, but are now manufactured in England by the Royal Luſtring Company, to as great perfection as in any other Country, whereby many Thouſands may be imployed: And whereas Proviſion hath been made by divers Laws for the Encouragement of the ſaid Manufacture, and for Preventing the Importation of ſuch Foreign Silks, without paying the Duties charged thereon, which have been frequently eluded by the Subtile Practices of evil-diſpoſed Perſons: For remedy thereof, and for the further Encouragement of the ſaid Manufacture, Be it Enacted, and it is hereby Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That every Perſon or Perſons who ſhall Import any Foreign Alamodes or Luſtrings, from parts beyond the Seas, into any Port or Place within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, without paying the Cuſtoms, Rates, Impoſitions and Duties that ſhall be due and payable for the ſame at ſuch Importation, or ſhall Import any Alamodes or Luſtrings prohibited by Law to be Imported, or ſhall by way of Inſurance or otherwiſe, undertake or agree to deliver, or in purſuance of any Undertaking, Agreement or Inſurance, ſhall deliver, or cauſe to be delivered, any ſuch Goods or Merchandize, and every Perſon or Perſons who ſhall agree to pay any Sum or Sums of Money, Præmium or Reward for Inſuring or Conveying any ſuch Goods or Merchandize, or ſhall knowingly receive or take the ſame into his, her, or their Houſe, Shop, or Warehouſe, Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall and may be proſecuted for any the Offences or Matters aforeſaid, in any Action, Suit or Information, and thereupon a Capias in the firſt Proceſs, ſpecifying the Sum of the Penalties ſued for, ſhall and may Iſſue; and ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be obliged to give ſufficient Bail and Security, by Natural-born Subjects, Perſons Naturalized or Denizens, to the Officer ſerving or executing the Writ or Proceſs on or againſt him, her, or them, to appear in the Court out of which ſuch Writ or Proceſs did iſſue, at the Day of the Return of ſuch Writ or Proceſs, to anſwer ſuch Suit or Proſecution; and ſhall at the time of ſuch Appearance give ſufficient Bail or Security by ſuch Perſons, as aforeſaid, in the ſaid Court, to anſwer and pay all the Forfeitures and Penalties incurred for ſuch Offence, in caſe he, ſhe, or they ſhall be convict thereof, or to yield his, her, or their Bodies to Priſon.

Penalty of Five hundred pounds is laid upon Persons Insuring to Import Prohibited Goods, or Goods without paying Duties and Customs, and also a Penalty of Five hundred pounds upon any Person who shall be so Insured: For the more easie and certain recovery of the same, It is hereby further Enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to sue for or prosecute, and to recover the said Penalty by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Protection, Privilege or Wager of Law shall be allowed, nor more than one Imparlance.

Black Alamodes not mark'd and seal'd;

III. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all black Alamodes and Lustrings, wheresoever manufactured, which shall be found in the custody or possession of any Person or Persons not marked and sealed with the Mark and Seal, or Marks and Seals of the Custom-house, or of the Royal Lustring Company, shall and are hereby declared and adjudged to be forfeited, and shall or may be seized as forfeited, whether the same have been before such Seizure bought and sold or not, and the Person in whose custody or possession the same shall be found, shall incur all the Penalties contained in a Clause relating to Alamodes and Lustrings, now in force, in a certain Act made in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, Intituled, An Act for Granting to his Majesty certain Duties upon Glass Wares and Earthen Bottles, Coals and Culm, for the Carrying on the War against France. 6 & 7 W. & M. cap. 18.

No Alamodes and Lustrings, seized and forfeited, shall be used here;

but shall be Exported.

IV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Alamodes and Lustrings, that from and after the Tenth day of April, One thousand six hundred ninety seven, shall be seized and forfeited by virtue of any Law now in force, shall be consumed or used in this Kingdom, but shall be Exported again, and not sold otherwise that on Condition to be Exported: And for preventing their consumption in England, the same shall immediately, on seizure, be carried to the Custom-house Warehouse in London, and there such as are forfeited shall be sold by Inch of Candle, on condition to be Exported, and not delivered to the Buyer or any other Person, but only to be carried on Ship-board, in order to Exportation, and not until sufficient Security be given, that the same and every part thereof shall be Exported, and not landed again in any part of England, Dominion of Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed; which Security shall be discharged by Certificate from the Chief Magistrate or Officer of the Place or Port where such Goods shall be landed, or by Oath made that the same were lost at Sea, and not otherwise.

Security to be given for Exportation, to be discharged by a Certificate.

No Draw back to be allowed on Exportation of Alamodes and Lustrings.

V. And forasmuch as there is no reason that any of his Majesties Subjects should have Lustrings and Alamodes at a cheaper rate than the Inhabitants of this Kingdom, or that it should be more profitable to Export foreign Lustrings and Alamodes beyond the Seas, than such as are made in this Kingdom, which would happen in case the Exporter be allowed to draw or receive back on Exportation all or any part of the Duties paid or payable on the said Commodities on Importation of the same: Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That on Exportation of foreign Lustrings or Alamodes, the Exporter shall not be Entitled to receive, draw back, or be repaid the Duties, Customs or Impositions paid, payable, or secured on Importation of the same, or any part thereof; any Law, Statute, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

CAP. XXI.

An Act for the better Preventing the Counterfeiting, Clipping, and other Diminishing the Coin of this Kingdom.

Preamble.

Whereas the preventing the Currency of Clipt and unlawfully Diminisht and Counterfeit Money, is a more Effectual Means to preserve the Coin of this Kingdom entire and pure than the most rigorous Laws for the Punishment of such as Diminish or Counterfeit the same: And whereas by the known Laws of this Kingdom no Person ought to Pay, or knowingly Tender in Payment, any Counterfeit, or Unlawful diminisht Money, and all Persons not only may refuse to Receive the same, but may, and by the ancient Statutes and Ordinances of this Kingdom, have been required to Destroy and Deface the same, and more especially the Tellers in the Receipt of the Exchequer, by their Duty and Oath of Office, are required to receive no Money but good and true: And to the end the same might the better be discerned and known, by the ancient Course of the said Receipt of the Exchequer all Money ought to be received there by Weight as well as Tale: For the restoring of which Course, together with other things, an Act was made in the last Session of this present Parliament, Intituled, An Act for the better Observation of the Course anciently used in the Receipt of the Exchequer, whereby amongst other things it is Enacted, That the respective Tellers of the said Receipt of the Exchequer, when any Money shall be brought to the said Receipt of the Exchequer, to be there paid, shall without delay receive it, weighing the same in entire Sums, or otherwise, and making due Entry of the Weight and Tale thereof, according to the ancient Course; But no Provision is made in the said Act, that the said Tellers shall refuse to receive the said Money, in case it shall not be of its due Weight, and the former and ancient Laws being grown into Desuitude, whereby unlawfully Diminisht and Counterfeit Money receive a Currency, and Wicked and Traiterous Persons are Incouraged to Diminish and Counterfeit the same: Now to the end the Kingdom, after so vast a Charge and Expence for the Reformation of the Silver Coin, and Restoring it to its due Weight and Purity, may not Relapse into the same Evil, from which it hath been so lately delivered with great Difficulty and Hazard, and that Counterfeit and unlawfully Diminisht Money, which already begins to increase, may be Defaced and Destroyed, Be it Declared and Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That it is and shall be Lawful to and for any Person, to whom any Silver Money shall be tendred, any piece or pieces whereof shall be Diminisht, otherwise than by reasonable Wearing, or that by the Stamp, Impression, Colour or Weight thereof, he shall suspect to be Counterfeit, to Cut, Break or Deface such piece or pieces; and if any piece so Cut, Broken or Defaced, shall appear to be Counterfeit, the Person tendring the same shall bear the loss thereof: But if the same shall be of due Weight, and appear to be Lawful Money, the Person that cut, broke or defaced the same shall, and is hereby required to take and receive the same at the Rate it was Coined for;

Enacted,

Disputes to be determined by the Mayor, &c.

II. Sixty five Pound to be a Bushel of Rock-Salt.

XI. And whereas by the several Acts for Laying Duties upon Salt, any Person Exporting Salt to Parts beyond the Seas, is Entitled to a Drawback of the whole Duty of the Salt so Exported; and it is found by experience that many Exporters of Salt and Rock-Salt, after they have obtained the said Drawback or a Debenture for the same, do privately Reland such Salt or Rock-Salt in England or Wales, without paying the Duties thereof upon such Relanding: For prevention thereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Four and twentieth day of June, no Debenture shall be made or granted, or Drawback allowed to be paid, for or upon Account of the Exportation of any Salt or Rock-Salt for Ireland, until the Exporter of the said Salt or Rock-Salt shall produce to the Officer appointed to make such Debenture, a Certificate under the Hand of the Collector of the Customs of the Port in Ireland, where such Salt or Rock-Salt shall be Landed, or the Person Executing his Office, of the particular Quantity of Salt or Rock-Salt actually Landed, to be Computed after the Rate of Fifty six Pounds Weight to the Bushel, in case the same shall be English White Salt, and after the Rate of Sixty five Pounds to the Bushel, in case the same shall be English Rock Salt, and after the Rate of Eighty four Pounds to the Bushel, in case the same shall be Foreign Salt; which Salt and Rock-Salt is hereby Directed and Required to be Weighed by the said Collectors or Persons Executing their respecting Offices, and the said Certificate to be made gratis, and without delay. And it is hereby Enacted, That no Drawback shall be allowed or paid for more Salt or Rock-Salt, of the Quantity Exported in such Vessel, than what shall appear by such Certificate to have been actually Landed in Ireland.

No Drawback to be allowed for Salt Exported for Ireland, till a Certificate is produced from thence.

XII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Ship or Vessel laden with Salt Exported, to be carried to Parts beyond the Seas, shall, from and after the said Four and twentieth day of June, by Stress of Weather, or otherwise, be drove or come into any Port, Creek, Harbour, or other Place within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, It shall and may be Lawful to and for the Officer of Excise on Salt for such Place, appointed or to be appointed for that purpose by the Commissioners of Excise, to Enter or Come on Board such Ship or Vessel, and there to Continue and be, till the said Ship or Vessel shall Unlade her Cargo, or Return to Sea to go her intended Voyage, under the Penalty of Twenty Pounds, to be Recovered of the Master of such Ship or Vessel, who shall Refuse such Officer so to come and continue on Board, as aforesaid. And if the said Master, or any other Person, shall Unlade or put on Shore any Part of the said Salt before due Entry or Repayment of the Duty, as by the Statutes in that behalf made, is Provided, That then, and in every such Case, not only the said Salt so Unladen, but also the whole Cargo of Salt in such Ship or Vessel remaining, shall be forfeited and Lost.

Proviso for Salt-Ships drove into Port by Stress of Weather, &c.

Salt Landed before Entry, or Repayment of the Duty, whole Cargo forfeited.

XIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Salt, as well Foreign as English, shall be laid on board any Ship or Vessel, either to be transported to Parts beyond the Seas, or carried Coast-wise, to be Relanded in England, Wales or Berwick, the Officer of the Customs of the Port where the said Salt shall be laden on board any such Ship or Vessel (which Cocquet shall be also signed by the Officer in the said Port appointed by the Commissioners of Excise for the Duty on Salt, and given without Fee or Delay) express the particular Quantity of Salt so laden on board: And in case such Ship or Vessel shall come into any Port, Creek, Harbour or Place in England, Wales or Berwick, It shall be Lawful for the Officers of the Customs, or other Officers for the said Duties, to go on board any such Ship or Vessel, and demand a sight of such Cocquet; and in case he or they shall have just cause to suspect that there is not so much Salt on board as the Quantity expressed in such Cocquet, and shall make Affidavit thereof before the Collector or Customer of the said Port, or Person executing their or either of their Offices, to weigh all the Salt remaining on board; and in case upon such weighing, there shall appear not to be so much Salt on board as the Quantity expressed in such

Salt exported or carried Coastwise,

Quantity to be expresst in the Cocquet.

Officer finding less on board than expressed, Salt forfeited.

Coequet, making reasonable Allowance for the Waste of the said Salt since its Exportation, and making also Allowance (for Salt going Coast-wise) of Salt delivered to another Port, and endorsed in the Salt-Permit going with the said Vessel, as delivered at such Port, then, and in such case, the said Salt so remaining on board, shall be forfeited and lost.

XIV. And for prevention of Frauds frequently practised in curing Fish at Sea with Salt, which hath not or shall not have been entred, nor the Duties thereof paid, or secured to be paid according to the Directions of the former Laws, or with Salt exported from England or Wales, the Duties whereof shall have been repaid upon such Exportation, or Debentures obtained, in order to the Drawing back of the same: Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Nine and twentieth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and two, no Fish, for which Allowances are given upon Exportation, shall be Imported, Brought in, or Landed within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, unless the Owner or Proprietor of such Fish, or the Master of the Vessel, shall make Oath before the Officer for the said Duties, in the Port or Place where such Fish shall be Imported, Brought in, or Landed, (who shall administer the same without Fee or Charge) That all the Salt wherewith the said Fish was Cured, was laden or put on board from some part of England, Wales or Berwick, and that no Drawback, or Allowance, or Debenture for the same, hath, to his knowledge or belief, been had or obtained, or is intended to be had or obtained, upon the Exportation or Carrying out of the said Salt, or any part thereof, upon pain of forfeiting such Fish that shall be Imported, Brought in, or Landed, contrary to the intent or meaning hereof, and double the value thereof, to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof.

No Fish for which Allowances are given upon Exportation, shall be Imported, unless Oath be made,

Vide, 5 Geo. cap. 18.

That all the Salt which Cured the Fish was carried from England without Drawback.

Forfeiture.

XV. And whereas the Officers appointed by the Commissioners of Excise to take care of the Duties on Imported Salt, and to prevent Frauds in the undue obtaining Debentures for Drawbacks and Allowances out of the said Duties, are not, by any of the Laws relating to the said Duties, sufficiently impowered to go on board Ships and Vessels for that purpose, although the Duties on Salt are under the Management of the said Commissioners and their Officers: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from henceforth it shall and may be Lawful to and for the Officers appointed by the Commissioners of Excise for the said Duties on Salt, from time to time, to go on board all Ships Importing or Exporting any Salt or Fish, and to continue on board such Ships, to take an Account of such Salt and Fish, and see the same Weighed, Landed or Exported; and if any Person or Persons shall obstruct or hinder any of the said Officers in performance of their Duties aforesaid, then, and in every such case, the Person offending therein shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Power given to the Officers of Salt-Duty to go on board Ships.

XVI. And whereas her Majesties Duties on Salt are much lessened by the Exportation of great Quantities of Fish, in regard the Exporters thereof, after the same are carried out of Port, and Allowances, or Debentures for Allowances out of the Duties on Salt had or obtained on such Exportation, do frequently bring back such Fish into Port, and Re-export the same, and obtain a Second or more Allowances for the very same Fish: For remedy thereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Four and twentieth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and two, it shall and may be Lawful for the Officers for the said Duties on Salt, in the several and respective parts of the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, upon the Exportation of any Codfish, Ling or Hake, and before the same shall be laid on board for Exportation, to cut off part of the Tail of every such Codfish, Ling or Hake, before the same shall be so exported, to the intent it may be known that such Codfish, Ling or Hake hath been so exported, and Allowances obtained on Exportation thereof, in case the same shall be re-landed or reimported: And also that it shall be Lawful upon the Exportation of any Pilchards, Scads, White Herrings, Red Herrings, Salmon, or dried Red Sprats, and before the same shall be laid on board for Exportation, to mark any Cask, Bartel or other Vessel, wherein any such Pilchards, Scads, White Herrings, Red Herrings, Salmon, or dried Red Sprats, shall be exported, to the intent it may be known that such Pilchards, Scads, White Herrings, Red Herrings, Salmon, or dried Red Sprats, have been exported, and Allowances obtained on Exportation of the same, in case the same, or any of them, shall be relanded or reimported.

and to mark the Casks of Pilchards, &c.

Vide, 5 Geo. cap. 18.

XVII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Codfish, Ling or Hake, or any Pilchards, Scads, White Herrings, Red Herrings, Salmon, or dried Red Sprats, shall, after the same shall be Exported, be fraudulently relanded in England, or Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or Reimported, all the said Fish, so relanded or reimported, shall be forfeited and lost, and double the value thereof, to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof.

Fish fraudulently Relanded, forfeited, and double the value.

XIX. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Penalties and Forfeitures hereby given and imposed, shall be recovered and levied by the same ways, means and methods, as any Penalties and Forfeitures can or may be recovered and levied by any of the Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of her Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed, nor any more than one Imparlance: And that the said Penalties and Forfeitures shall be distributed in manner following, (viz.) One moiety thereof to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other moiety to him or them that will sue or inform for the same.

Penalties, how to be recovered.

How to be distributed.

XX. And whereas the Allowances given by the several Acts relating to the Duties on Salt, upon the Exportation of Codfish, Ling and Hake, therein mentioned, do much exceed the Duty of the Salt usually imployed in the Curing the same, so that many Persons, for the sake of the said Allowances only, do Export such Fish not duly Cured, and Fish of very small size, not having a due quantity of Salt made use of in Curing the same, which is not only a Prejudice to her Majesty in her said Duties on Salt, but also a great Disparagement to the Trade of English Fish in Foreign Markets: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in lieu of the several Allowances given out of the said Duties on Salt, by the Acts relating to the same, upon the Exportation of any Codfish, Ling or Hake, there shall be allowed and paid the several and respective Sums herein after mentioned, for the several and respective Sorts of Codfish, Ling or Hake herein after mentioned, which shall be Exported from any Port or Place in England, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, from and after the said Four and twentieth day of June; That is to say:

In lieu of the several Allowances out of the Salt-Duty for Fish exported, the Sums hereafter mentioned to be allowed:

XXIV. Provided always, and it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any of the ſaid Duties on Salt ſhall ceaſe, determine or be redeemed by Parliament, then, and in any of the ſaid caſes, the ſaid Allowances upon Exportation of Codfiſh, Ling or Hake, hereby ſettled, ſhall be leſſened in proportion to the Duties on Salt that ſhall ſo ceaſe, determine, or be redeemed.

Whereas great quantities of Engliſh Corn, Grain, Meal, and other Goods, which may lawfully be Exported, and for which no Duties are payable to her Majeſty upon Exportation thereof, are daily brought in Hoys, and other Veſſels of the City of London, from the Counties of Kent and Eſſex: And whereas the Maſters of ſuch Hoys and Veſſels imployed in the Carriage of ſuch Goods, have of late been put to unreaſonable and unneceſſary Charges and Trouble, by certain Officers of her Majeſties Cuſtoms, who for their own Profit and Lucre have required and exacted great Fees for Tranſires and Cocquets, to the great Diſcouragement of the Country Farmers, and Oppreſſion of the ſaid Hoymen: For Remedy whereof, Be it therefore Enacted by the Queens moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Tenth day of May, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and two, no Cocquet or Cocquets, or Bonds thereon, ſhall be required by any Officer of the Cuſtoms, or others, of or from any ſuch Maſter or Owner of ſuch Hoys or Veſſels, carrying or conveying ſuch Goods, as aforeſaid, to or from any place within the Port of London; that is to ſay, from London-Bridge unto the ſuppoſed right Line from the Promontary or Point called, The North Foreland in the County of Kent, unto the Promontary or Point called, The Naes, including ſo much of the Ports of Sandwich and Ipſwich, and the Members thereof, as are within the ſaid Limits,

III. And whereas upon the carrying of Goods from Port to Port, Bonds are given for returning Certificates of the landing or discharging of the Goods in the Ports to which they are carried, and when such Bonds are transmitted into the Exchequer, the Certificates relating thereunto have been usually annexed to such Bonds, but by Fraud or Carelesness the Certificates are sometimes disjoyned from the respective Bonds, whereby Persons who have duly complied with the Conditions thereof have been put to unjust Vexation and Charge; For prevention whereof for the future, it is hereby Enacted, That the proper Officers for transmitting the said Bonds into the Exchequer, shall truly and faithfully endorse on the backside of every such Bond the Substance of the Certificate, if there be any relating thereto, and sign such Endorsement, to serve as an Intimation to the Court of Exchequer, concerning the Performance or Non-performance of the Conditions of such Bonds respectively, under the Penalty of forfeiting treble Damages, besides Costs of Suit, to be recovered by the Party grieved, against the Officer who shall offend therein, by Action of Debt or the Case, or by Bill, Suit or Information, in any Court of Record, wherein no Essoign, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance shall be granted or allowed.

Officers to Sign the Endorsement upon Coast-Bonds, when returned into the Exchequer.

Provided nevertheleſs, That if the Parliament of England ſhall think fit to lay any further Impoſitions by way of Cuſtoms, or ſuch Exciſes, with which by virtue of this Treaty, Scotland is to be charged equally with England, in ſuch caſe Scotland ſhall be liable to the ſame Cuſtoms and Exciſes, and have an Equivalent to be ſettled by the Parliament of Great Britain: With this further Proviſion, That any Malt to be made and conſumed in that part of the United Kingdom now called Scotland, ſhall not be charged with any Impoſition on Malt, during this preſent War. An Equivalent to be made to Scotland.

That whereas by the Terms of this Treaty, the Subjects of Scotland, for preſerving an Equality of Trade throughout the United Kingdom, will be liable to ſeveral Cuſtoms and Exciſes now payable in England, which will be applicable towards Payment of the Debts of England contracted before the Union; It is agreed, That Scotland ſhall have an Equivalent for what the Subjects thereof ſhall be ſo charged towards Payment of the ſaid Debts of England, in all Particulars whatſoever, in manner following, viz. That before the Union of the ſaid Kingdoms, the Sum of Three hundred ninety eight thouſand and eighty five Pounds, Ten Shillings, be granted to her Majeſty by the Parliament of England, for the Uſes after-mentioned, being the Equivalent to be anſwered to Scotland for ſuch parts of the ſaid Cuſtoms and Exciſes upon all Exciſeable Liquors with which that Kingdom is to be charged upon the Union, as will be applicable to the Payment of the ſaid Debts of England, according to the Proportions which the preſent Cuſtoms in Scotland, being Thirty thouſand Pounds per Annum, do bear to the Cuſtoms in England, computed at One million three hundred forty one thouſand five hundred and fifty nine Pounds per Annum; and which the preſent Exciſes on Exciſeable Liquors in Scotland, being Thirty three thouſand and five hundred Pounds per Annum, do bear to the Exciſes on Exciſeable Liquors in England, computed at Nine hundred forty ſeven thouſand ſix hundred and two Pounds per Annum: Which Sum of Three hundred ninety eight thouſand eighty five Pounds ten Shillings, ſhall be due and payable from the time of the Union. And in regard that after the Union, Scotland becoming liable to the ſame Cuſtoms and Duties payable on Import and Export, and to the ſame Exciſes on all Exciſeable Liquors as in England, as well upon that Account, as upon the Account of the Encreaſe of Trade and People, (which will be the happy Conſequence of the Union) the ſaid Revenues will much Improve beyond the before-mentioned Annual Values thereof, of which no preſent Eſtimate can be made; yet nevertheleſs, for the Reaſons aforeſaid, there ought to be a proportionable Equivalent anſwered to Scotland; It is agreed, That after the Union there ſhall be an Account kept of the ſaid Duties ariſing in Scotland, to the end it may appear, what ought to be anſwered to Scotland as an Equivalent for ſuch Proportion of the ſaid Encreaſe as ſhall be applicable to the Payment of the Debts of England. And for the further and more effectual anſwering the ſeveral Ends hereafter-mentioned, It is agreed, That from and after the Union, the whole Encreaſe of the Revenues of Cuſtoms, and Duties on Import and Export, and Exciſes upon Exciſeable Liquors in Scotland, over and above the Annual Produce of the ſaid reſpective Duties, as above-ſtated, ſhall go and be applied, for the Term of Seven Years, to the Uſes hereafter-mentioned; and that, upon the ſaid Account there ſhall be anſwered to Scotland annually from the end of Seven Years after the Union, an Equivalent in Proportion to ſuch Part of the ſaid Encreaſe, as ſhall be applicable to the Debts of England; and generally, That an Equivalent ſhall be anſwered to Scotland for ſuch Parts of the Engliſh Debts, as Scotland may hereafter become liable to pay by reaſon of the Union, other than ſuch for which Appropriations have been made by Parliament in England, of the Cuſtoms, or other Duties on Export and Import, Exciſes on all Exciſeable Liquors, in reſpect of which Debts, Equivalents are herein before provided. And as for the Uſes to which the ſaid Sum of Three hundred ninety eight thouſand eighty five Pounds Ten Shillings, to be granted, as aforeſaid, and all other Monies which are to be anſwered or allowed to Scotland, as aforeſaid, are to be applied, It is agreed, That in the firſt place, out of the aforeſaid Sum, what Conſideration ſhall be found neceſſary to be had for any Loſſes which private Perſons may ſuſtain by Reducing the Coin of Scotland to the Standard and Value of the Coin of England, may be made good; in the next place, That the Capital Stock, or Fund of the African and Indian Company of Scotland, advanced, together with Intereſt for the ſaid Capital Stock, after the Rate of Five per Centum per Annum, from the reſpective Times of the Payment thereof, ſhall be paid: Upon Payment of which Capital Stock and Intereſt, It is agreed, the ſaid Company be diſſolv'd and ceaſe, and alſo, that from the time of paſſing the Act of Parliament in England, for raiſing the ſaid Sum of Three hundred ninety eight thouſand eighty five Pounds Ten Shillings, the ſaid Company ſhall neither Trade, nor grant Licence to Trade; Providing, That if the ſaid Stock and Intereſt ſhall not be paid in Twelve Months after the Commencement of the Union, That then the ſaid Company may from thenceforward Trade, or give Licence to Trade, until the ſaid whole Capital Stock and Intereſt ſhall be paid. And as to the Overplus of the ſaid Sum of Three hundred ninety eight thouſand eighty five Pounds Ten Shillings, after Payment of what Conſideration ſhall be had for Loſſes in repairing the Coin, and paying the ſaid Capital Stock and Intereſt, and alſo the whole Encreaſe of the ſaid Revenues of Cuſtoms, Duties and Exciſes, above the preſent Value which ſhall ariſe in Scotland, during the ſaid Term of Seven Years, together with the Equivalent which ſhall become due upon the Improvement thereof in Scotland after the ſaid Term; and alſo, as to all other Sums, which according to the Agreements aforeſaid, may become payable to Scotland by way of Equivalent, for what that Kingdom ſhall hereafter become liable towards Payment of the Debts of England; It is agreed, That the ſame be applied in manner following, viz. That all the Publick Debts of the Kingdom of Scotland, as ſhall be adjuſted by this preſent Parliament, ſhall be paid: And that Two thouſand Pounds per Annum, for the ſpace of Seven Years, ſhall be applied towards encouraging and promoting the Manufacture of Coarſe Wooll within thoſe Shires which produce the Wooll; and that the firſt Two thouſand Pounds Sterling be paid at Martinmas next, and ſo yearly at Martinmas, during the ſpace aforeſaid; and afterwards the ſame ſhall be wholly applied towards the encouraging and promoting the Fiſheries, and ſuch other Manufactures and Improvements in Scotland, as may moſt conduce to the General Good of the United Kingdom. And it is agreed, That her Majeſty be impowered to appoint Commiſſioners, who ſhall be accountable to the Parliament of Great Britain, for diſpoſing the ſaid Sum of Three hundred ninety eight thouſand and eighty five Pounds Ten Shillings, and all other Monies which ſhall ariſe to Scotland, upon the Agree-

CAP. XXX.

An Act for ascertaining the Rates of Foreign Coins in her Majesties Plantations in America.

Preamble.

Whereas for remedying the Inconveniencies which had arisen from the different Rates at which the same Species of Foreign Silver Coins did pass in her Majesties several Colonies and Plantations in America, her most Excellent Majesty has thought fit by her Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the Eighteenth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and four, and in the Third Year of her Reign, to settle and ascertain the Currency of Foreign Coins in her said Colonies and Plantations, in the manner and words following:

Proclamation for ascertaining the Currency of Foreign Coins in America.

WE having had under Our Consideration the different Rates at which the same Species of Foreign Coins do pass in Our several Colonies and Plantations in America, and the Inconveniencies thereof, by the indirect Practice of drawing the Money from one Plantation to another, to the great Prejudice of the Trade of Our Subjects; and being sensible, that the same cannot be otherwise remedied, than by reducing of all Foreign Coins to the same Current Rate within all Our Dominions in America; and the Principal Officers of Our Mint having laid before Us a Table of the Value of the several Foreign Coins which usually pass in Payments in Our said Plantations, according to their Weight, and the Assays made of them in Our Mint, thereby shewing the just Proportion which each Coin ought to have to the other, which is as followeth, viz. Sevill Pieces of Eight, Old Plate, Seventeen Peny-weight Twelve Grains, Four Shillings and Six Pence; Sevill Pieces of Eight, New Plate, Fourteen Peny-weight, Three Shillings Seven Pence One Farthing; Mexico Pieces of Eight, Seventeen Peny-weight Twelve Grains, Four Shillings and Six Pence; Pillar Pieces of Eight, Seventeen Peny-weight Twelve Grains, Four Shillings and Six Pence Three Farthings; Peru Pieces of Eight, Old Plate, Seventeen Peny-weight Twelve Grains, Four Shillings and Five Pence, or thereabouts; Cross Dollars, Eighteen Peny-weight, Four Shillings and Four Pence Three Farthings; Ducatoons of Flanders, Twenty Peny-weight and Twenty one Grains, Five Shillings and Six Pence; Ecu's of France, or Silver Lewis, Seventeen Peny-weight Twelve Grains, Four Shillings and Six Pence, Crusadoes of Portugal, Eleven Peny-weight Four Grains, Two Shillings and Ten Pence One Farthing; Three Gilder Pieces of Holland, Twenty Peny-weight and Seven Grains, Five Shillings and Two Pence One Farthing; Old Rix Dollars of the Empire, Eighteen Peny-weight and Ten Grains, Four Shillings and Six Pence; The Halfs, Quarters and other parts in Proportion to their Denominations, and Light Pieces in Proportion to their Weight: We have therefore thought fit, for remedying the said Inconveniencies, by the Advice of Our Council, to Publish and Declare, That from and after the First day of January next ensuing the Date hereof, no Sevill, Pillar, or Mexico Pieces of Eight, though of the full Weight of Seventeen Peny-weight and an half, shall be accounted, received, taken, or paid within any of Our said Colonies or Plantations, as well well thoſe under Proprietors and Charters, as under our immediate Commiſſion and Government, at above the Rate of Six Shillings per Piece Current Money, for the Diſcharge of any Contracts or Bargains to be made after the ſaid Firſt day of January next; the Halfs, Quarters, and other leſſer Pieces of the ſame Coins to be accounted, received, taken, or paid in the ſame Proportion; And the Currency of all Pieces of Eight of Peru, Dollars, and other Foreign Species of Silver Coins, whether of the ſame or Baſer Alloy, ſhall, after the ſaid Firſt day of January next, ſtand Regulated, according to their Weight and Fineneſs, according and in Proportion to the Rate before limited and ſet for the Pieces of Eight of Sevill, Pillar, and Mexico; So that no Foreign Silver Coin of any ſort be permitted to exceed the ſame Proportion upon any Account whatſoever. And we do hereby Require and Command all Our Governors, Lieutenant-Governors, Magiſtrates, Officers, and all other Our good Subjects, within Our ſaid Colonies and Plantations, to obſerve and obey Our Directions herein, as they tender Our Diſpleaſure.

II. And whereas notwithſtanding the ſaid Proclamation, the ſame indirect Practices as are therein mentioned, are ſtill carried on within ſome of the ſaid Colonies or Plantations, and the Money thereby drawn from one Plantation to another, in prejudice of the Trade of her Majeſties Subjects; Wherefore for the better inforcing the due Execution of her Majeſties ſaid Proclamation throughout all the ſaid Colonies and Plantations, and for the more effectual remedying the ſaid Inconveniencies thereby intended to be remedied, Be it Enacted by the Queens moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That if any Perſon within any of the ſaid Colonies or Plantations, as well thoſe under Proprietors and Charters, as under her Majeſties immediate Commiſſion and Government, ſhall, after the Firſt day of May, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and nine, for the Diſcharge of any Contracts or Bargains to be thereafter made, account, receive, take or pay any of the ſeveral Species of Foreign Silver Coins mentioned in the before recited Proclamation, at any greater or higher Rate than at which the ſame is thereby regulated, ſettled and allowed, to be accounted, received, taken or paid, every ſuch Perſon ſo accounting, receiving, taking or paying the ſame contrary to the Directions therein contained, ſhall ſuffer Six Months Imprizonment, without Bail or Mainprize; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage in any of the ſaid Colonies or Plantations to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding; and ſhall likewiſe forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds for every ſuch Offence, One moiety thereof to her Majeſty, her Heirs and Succeſſors, the other moiety to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall ſue for the ſame, to be recovered with full Coſts of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of her Majeſties Courts of Juſtice within any of the ſaid Plantations, or in any of the Courts of Juſtice of the Charter or Proprietary Governments where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed.

to ſuffer Six Months Imprizonment, and forfeit 10 l.

III. Provided nevertheleſs, and it is hereby Declared, That nothing in the before-recited Proclamation, or in this Act contained, ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to compel any Perſon to receive any of the ſaid Species of Foreign Silver Coins, at the reſpective Rates in the ſaid Proclamation mentioned.

Proviſo.

IV. Provided alſo, and it is hereby further Declared, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to reſtrain her Majeſty from regulating, and ſettling the ſeveral Rates of the ſaid Species of Foreign Silver Coins within any of the ſaid Colonies or Plantations, in ſuch other Manner, and according to ſuch other Rates and Proportions as her Majeſty by her Royal Proclamation for that purpoſe to be iſſued, ſhall from time to time judge proper and neceſſary, or from giving her Royal Aſſent to any Law hereafter to be made in any of the ſaid Colonies or Plantati-

Queen may regulate the ſeveral Species hereafter, in ſuch other manner as ſhe ſhall judge neceſſary.

XVI. And whereas by the Laws of this Realm, every Person importing Tobacco, and other Foreign Goods, from any Part of Great Britain, is entitled to a Drawback of part of the Duties paid or secured at the Importation thereof; and it hath been found by Experience, that great quantities of such Tobacco and other Foreign Goods, after they have been shipped for Exportation, have been privately re-landed in this Realm; and the Remedies already provided by Law, have not been sufficient to obviate a Practice so very Prejudicial to her Majesties Revenue, and to all fair and honest Traders in such Goods: For the better Prevention whereof for the future, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Seven and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ten, in case any Tobacco, or other Foreign Goods, contained or specified in any Certificate, whereupon any such Drawback is to be made, or whereupon any Debenture is to be made forth for any such Drawback, shall not be really and bona fide shipped and exported (the danger of the Seas and Enemies excepted) or shall be landed again in any Part of Great Britain, unless in case of distress to save the Goods from perishing, which shall be presently made known to the Person or Persons which are or shall be appointed by her Majesty to manage her Customs, or Principal Officers of the Port; then not only all such Tobacco and other Certificate-Goods shall be forfeited and lost, but also the Person or Persons (being the Exporters, or any others) who shall bring back or cause, or procure to be re-landed such Tobacco, and other Certificate-Goods, or any of them, in any Part of Great Britain, or be assisting, or otherwise concerned in the unshipping the same, or to whose hands the same shall knowingly come, after the unshipping thereof, or by whose Privity, Knowledge or Direction the said Tobacco and other Goods, or any part thereof, shall be so re-landed, shall forfeit double the amount of the said Drawback for such Goods, together with the Vessels and Boats, and all the Horses or other Cattle and Carriages whatsoever, made use of in the Landing, Removing, Carriage or Conveyance of the same; One moiety of all which Penalties or Forfeitures shall be to the Use of her Majesty, and the other Moiety to him or them that shall inform, seize, or sue for the same, to be recovered by Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of her Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, at any time or times within Five Years after the Offence shall be committed; wherein no Essoign, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed.

Such Goods re-landed, forfeited, and double the amount of the Drawback, with the Vessels, Boats, Horses, &c.

Master of the Ship assisting or conniving, Imprisoned for 6 Months.

No Debenture for Tobacco to Ireland, till a Certificate from the Collector, &c. in Ireland, of the landing the same there.

XVIII. And for preventing the running of Tobacco into this Kingdom, under pretence of exporting the same to Ireland; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Debenture shall be paid or allowed for any Tobacco exported from any Port of Great Britain, to the Kingdom of Ireland, until a Certificate shall be produced under the Hands and Seals of the Collector, Comptroller and Surveyor of the Customs, of any Port in Ireland, or any Two of them, where such Goods shall be landed, testifying the landing thereof, (the danger of the Seas, or Enemies excepted) any any Law to the contrary notwithstanding; which Certificate the Collector, Comptroller and Searcher of the Customs, or any Two of them, of each Port in Ireland, are impowered and required to deliver forthwith, upon the Discharge of such Tobacco, and not to take above One Shilling Fee for making out and delivery of such Certificate. Fee 1 s.

XIX. And as a further Security of her Majesties Revenues, both in Great Britain and Ireland; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Master of every Ship carrying such Certificate-Goods to Ireland, shall demand and take from the Collector of every respective Port of Great Britain, a Duplicate of his Content in writing, certified under the Hand and Seal of the Collector and Comptroller of such Port (which said Duplicate the Collector and Comptroller of each Port in Great Britain are hereby required to deliver to every Master, without Fee or Reward) and such Master shall be obliged to deliver such Duplicate to the Officers of the Customs in Ireland on his Arrival, before he be permitted to land such Goods there. Master carrying Certificate-Goods to Ireland to take a Duplicate of his Content from the Collector, &c.

XX. No Debentures for Tobacco exported in any Ship under 20 Tuns.

XXI. And whereas by an Exception or Clause contained in an Act
3 A. cap. 5. §. 1. made in the Third Year of her Majesties Reign [Intituled, An Act for granting to her Majesty a further Subsidy on Wines and Merchandizes imported] It was provided, That such Corants as should be imported in English-built shipping, navigated according to Law, should be exempted from paying the Two thirds Subsidy granted by the said Act: And whereas by a Clause in an Act made in the Fourth
4 A. cap. 6. §. 3. Year of her Majesties Reign, for continuing an Additional Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage; It was amongst other things Enacted and Declared, That the Exception contained in the aforesaid Act, whereby Corants imported in English-built shipping, navigated according to Law, were exempted from the said Duty, should be extended to such Corants as after the Five and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and six, should be imported in Ships belonging to any of the Subjects of the Republick of Venice, so that they also should be exempted from Payment of the Two thirds Subsidy granted by the aforesaid Act; any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas by an Act made in the Sixth Year of her Majesties Reign, for continuing the several Duties therein mentioned, the said Two thirds
6 A. cap. 22. §. 4. Subsidies were continued for Three Years, from the Seventh day of March, One thousand seven hundred and eight, with an Exception as to Corants imported in English-built shipping, according to the said Act, of the Third Year of her Majesties Reign, and no notice is taken of the Explanation thereof in the said Act of the Fourth of her Majesties Reign, as to Venetian-shipping also, whereby some doubts have arisen, whether Corants imported in Venetian-shipping ought to be exempted from the Continuation of the Two thirds Subsidy, according to the Provision before recited in the said Act of the Fourth Year of her Majesties Reign, extending the Exemption to them: For preventing which doubts, and in regard it would be very hard to restrain the Subjects of Venice from importing the Goods of their own Growth in their own shipping; Be it therefore Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Clause in the Act of the Fourth Year of the Queens Reign, for exempting Corants imported in Venetian-shipping from paying the Duty of Two thirds Subsidy, was intended, and is to be understood, from the time of passing the same Act, to be a perpetual Clause attending the Continuation of that Duty, and not limited unto the First Grant thereof; any thing in the said Act of the Sixth, or in any other subsequent Act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding. Corants imported in Venetian Ships subject to 4 A. c. 6.

XXII. And

XXII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Second and Third Year of the Reign of her present Majesty our most Gracious Sovereign Lady Queen Anne [Intituled, An Act for granting to her Majesty an Additional Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage for Three Years, and for laying a further Duty upon French Wines condemned as lawful Prize, and for ascertaining the Value of unrated Goods imported from the East-Indies] It is therein, amongst other things, Enacted, That all English Merchants should, from and after the Eighth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and three, have Eighteen Months time allowed them from the Entry inwards for the Exportation of all Tobacco, Sugar, Ginger, Pepper, Bugles, Cast and Bar-Iron, Dying-Wood, Dying-Wares, and Drugs, and should have the like Benefit and Drawback by such Exportations, as if the same had been exported within Twelve Months: And whereas the time allowed to Foreigners for Exportation of such Goods is limited to Nine Months, which by experience is found to be too short, and very inconvenient to Trade; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Foreign Merchants, or all British Merchants commissioned by them, shall from and after the Seven and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ten, have Fifteen Months time from the Entry inwards of all Tobacco, Sugar, Ginger, Pepper, Bugles, Cast and Bar-Iron, Dying-Wood, Dying-Wares, and Drugs (already imported or to be imported) allowed them to export the same, and shall have the like Benefit and Drawback by such Exportation, as if the same had been exported within Nine Months, according to the Second Rule in the Book of Rates, the said Rule, or any other Law or Custom now in force relating thereunto notwithstanding: Provided Certificates be taken forth, and Oath made, and all other Requisites performed, according to the Laws now in being. 2 & 3 A. cap. 9.

Foreign Merchants to have 15 Months time for Exportation of certain Foreign Goods.

Clause to limit a time for Prosecutions upon Plantation-Bonds:

And whereas the Laws of this Realm do require, That for Ships trading to or in her Majesties Plantations, lading Sugars and other enumerated Commodities there, Bonds be given which are commonly called Plantation-Bonds, with Condition to bring the same Goods to Great Britain, or to some other of her Majesties Plantations, or to that effect: Now to prevent the Discouragements which Persons trading to and from the said Plantations do or may lie under by the said Bonds lying out against them, although the Conditions thereof are or shall have been performed; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That as to such of the said Plantation-Bonds as have been entred into at any time or times before the Eight and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ten, and are now remaining in the hands of any of her Majesties Officers, in case there shall be no Prosecution for some Breach, or Non-performance of the respective Conditions thereof, before the Eight and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and thirteen, or if upon such Prosecution, Judgment be not obtained for her Majesty, before the Eight and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and fifteen, then such of the said Plantation-Bonds, so already entred into, shall (for want of such Prosecution or Judgment) be void; and as to such Plantation-Bonds as shall be entred into, after the said Eight and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ten, in case there shall be no Prosecution for some Breach or Non-performance of the respective Conditions thereof, within Three Years after the Dates thereof; or if upon such Prosecution as is last mentioned, Judgment be not obtained for her Majesty within the space of Two Years after the same Prosecution commenced, then every such Plantation-Bond, which shall hereafter be entred into, as aforesaid (in default of such Prosecution to be commenced, and Judgment to be obtained within the times before limited) shall also be void: And all the said Plantation-Bonds so made void by this Act, shall be delivered up by the Officers, having the same in their keeping, to be cancelled without Fee or Reward.

If such Bonds be not prosecuted in 3 Years from the Date, and Judgment obtained in 2 Years more, the Bonds to be void.

XXIV. And

XXIV. And whereas by an Act made in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King William the Third [Intituled, An Act for the more Effectual employing the Poor, by encouraging the Manufactures of this Kingdom] upon the Exportation of wrought Silks, and other Commodities therein mentioned, Security is to be taken in the manner therein exprest: Now in regard it may happen some of these Goods may be vended in Foreign Parts, from which no Certificate can be produced, as the said Act requires, to discharge the Security last mentioned, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That as to such of the Securities last mentioned, as have been entred into at any time or times, before the Eight and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ten, and are now remaining in the hands of any of her Majesties Officers, in case there shall be no Prosecution for some Breach, or Non-performance of the respective Conditions thereof, before the Eight and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and thirteen, or if upon such Prosecution, Judgment be not obtained for her Majesty, before the Eight and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and fifteen, then such of the said Securities so already entred into upon Exportation of such Silks, and other Commodities last mentioned, shall (for want of such Prosecution or Judgment) be void; and as to such Securities as shall be entred into, after the said Eight and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ten, upon Exportation of such wrought Silks, and other Commodities as are last mentioned, in case there shall be no Prosecution for some Breach, or Non-performance of the respective Conditions thereof, within Three Years after the dates thereof; or if upon such Prosecution as is last mentioned, Judgment be not obtained for her Majesty, within the space of Two Years after the same Prosecution commenced, then every such Security relating to wrought Silks, or such other Goods as are last mentioned, which shall hereafter be entred into, as aforesaid, (in default of such Prosecution to be commenced, and Judgment to be obtained within the times before limited) shall also be void: And all such Securities so made void by this Act, shall be delivered up by the respective Officers, having the same in their keeping, to be cancelled without Fee or Reward.

XXV. And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Officer of her Majesties Revenue, having the Custody of any of the Bonds by this Act required to be delivered up to be cancelled, as aforesaid, shall, upon reasonable Demand refuse or neglect to deliver up such Bonds, according to the purport and true meaning of this Act, then the Officer so offending, shall for every such Offence, be, and is hereby made liable to answer to the Party grieved, all his Damages, together with treble Costs of Suit.

XXVI. And in regard the Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage on Merchandizes exported, is to determin from and after the Last day of July, One thousand seven hundred and ten, but it is nevertheless necessary, that the respective Officers of the Customs, as well outwards as inwards, do continue to perform the Duties of their respective Offices, as well to prevent Frauds in relation to the Drawbacks upon Certificate-Goods, as to hinder the Exportation of Goods prohibited to be exported, and for other Causes wherein the publick Service is or may be concerned; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Fees of the Officers of the Customs, as well in the Port of London, as in other Ports of Great Britain, which were established or allowed by the Act of Tonnage and Poundage, made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, or by any of the Rules annexed thereunto, or by any Act or Acts of Parliament since made, touching any such Fees, and which may lawfully be taken by any such Officers, or their Deputies, from any her Majesties Subjects or Strangers, until the First day of August, One thousand seven hundred and ten, for any Cocquets, Certificates, Entries, Clearings, Bonds, Debentures, Endorsments, Sufferances, Transires, Let-Passes, Warrants, and other Matters and Things relating to the Duties of their respective respective Offices, shall after the Last day of July, One thousand seven hundred and ten, continue and be paid and payable for the same, until the said Fees, or any of them, shall be altered by the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament, as fully as if the said Fees, or any Table or Tables thereof formerly allowed, were particularly set down, or referred to in the Body of this Act; the Determination of the said Subsidy outwards, or any Act or Acts of Parliament, or other Matter or Thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

Officer imbezilling any Goods, forfeits double the Value with full Costs.
